

I am pleased with how the No-Call list has improved my quality of life. Please do not allow the change proposed to make companies free to telemarket former customers for up to 18 months after cancellation of services. I am a real estate sales person, and am included in the list of no-callers, and feel it has greatly enhanced our world.